From the desk of the pastor...

On the 50th wedding anniversary of the great Henry Ford, someone asked him what his secret for marital success and happiness was. "Just the same as in the automobile industry", Ford replied, "stick to one model."

Pope Benedict gives a key for interpreting Jesus teachings on marriage. He writes that monogamous marriage corresponds to the image of a monotheistic God. The one God loves us with the passion of a groom for his young bride. In turn he requires us to be faithful, as He is always faithful to us. Before him we can have no false gods. To go after a different god is adultery. He calls us to love Him totally and exclusively. Marriage is meant to be a sign, a sacrament of that indissoluble love between God and man.

Christ used the creation story as the source of his argument. When God created the woman, He put the man to sleep and took from him "a rib, and from there came "a woman." Since then, there is "something" lacking in a man, and he will never be complete again until he finds that "rib" that he lost. I can picture a man who is so happy finding his long lost "rib" which can make him complete again. And now that he found "it/her" he will never take chances of losing "it/her" again. No one would dare to lose freely any part of his body once again. Thus, for a man who loves, the word "divorce" does not exist in "his world."

Indeed, marriage is a lifetime process of building the other. That's why during marriage, when the couples are facing each other, they should be able to express through their eyes: "thank you for making me - "me" and now "I am ready to make you - "you".

There is no question of divorce if you are happy together. And you can never be happy unless you love completely, and you can only love "completely" unless you feel first that "completeness" of being you.

God Bless,

Fr. Luis

Thanksgiving Prayer of Blessing

Loving God, we thank you this day
for our many blessings, and we ask for the grace to be thankful
even when times are hard.

When we have plenty, help us to serve those who go without.

When we are healthy, help us to care for those who are sick.

When we have comfort, help us to comfort those who suffer.

Thank you, God, for what we have,
and please move us to compassion, prayer, and action to help those who are in need.

Please bless all our loved ones who cannot be with us today, and bless us and the food we are about to receive.

Through Christ our Lord... Amen.

CWL Outreach: Kraft/Heinz National Food Bank Pantry Day will take place on October 16th in food stores throughout the country. Kraft/Heinz will donate another item to the Food Banks every time you buy certain products in their brand line. For example, a purchase of Kraft Peanut Butter will result in a donation of an additional peanut butter to the national Food Banks including our own. So many Canadians for various reasons, including the pandemic, are experiencing food insecurity and this is a way to help. Please do your grocery shopping on that day and with your purchases donate food to the hungry.
