From the Desk of the Pastor...

Let me share about what the Catholic Church calls the Communion of Saints. Saints in Greek means “holy ones.” It is a term Paul uses for members of the faith community. It includes not only those here on earth, but also those who have crossed from this earthly existence to the existence beyond earthly death. All who are united with Christ are members of the Communion of Saints.

There is a bond between all those who are in the Communion of Saints. The Communion of Saints is divided into three parts:

- 1) the Church Militant;
- 2) the Church Suffering; and
- 3) the Church Triumphant, those who are rejoicing with the Lord Jesus in heaven.

The Church Militant are those of us still fighting the spiritual battle here on earth against the forces of evil. The Church Suffering are those who have passed from this life but not yet completely with God. They are in a realm or stage wherein they are undergoing “purgation” before fully realizing the glory of heaven. But God is so gracious that He wants us to share fully in the glory of heaven.

God wants us to be cleansed with the water of love and the blood of the Lamb (as mentioned in the Book of Revelation). The love that cleanses us ultimately comes from Him (since God is love). Yet, the loving prayers and thoughtful petitions of other members of the Communion of Saints can make it easier for us to accept God's love. Thus, we on earth (the Church Militant) can be a part of enabling those who have died to feel and experience the love that emanates from God. So also, those who are fully with God (the Church Triumphant) can be a part of extending the cleansing love of God to those who are in the stage of purgation (Church Suffering).

It is exciting to think that we are part of the Holy Ones of GOD, the Communion of Saints, our future destiny. Yet, that is who we are called to be and live right here and now. We are called to be in communion with all God's Holy Ones by helping each other in prayer and living heaven here on earth. A blessed All Saints' and All Souls' Day everyone!

From the Parish Office

Priest Study Days: Please keep all priests of our Diocese in your prayers as they gather for their annual Priest Study Days November 3rd to 6th. These days provide an opportunity for prayer, learning, and fellowship, helping them to renew their spiritual and pastoral strength in service to God's people. Please note there will be no masses in Fr. Erwin's absence.

Flowers: Fr. Erwin kindly invites parishioners to consider donating flowers from their gardens or homes to adorn our altars. If at anytime you can contribute, please contact Lucy in Bobcaygeon or Kerrin in Fenelon Falls. These offerings help reduce the need for purchased arrangements while bringing the beauty of God's creation into our churches.
