From the desk of the pastor...

In the Feast of the Ascension, Jesus departs for His heavenly Father and leaves His disciples in charge of the affairs of His kingdom until His return in glory. Yes, Jesus finally takes leave of His disciples.

These farewell scenes focus not on describing the event in detail but on the last words that Jesus leaves with His disciples: "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8). "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Mt 28:19-20) "Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation. The one who believes and is baptized will be saved; but the one who does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: By using My name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick-up snakes in their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover. (Mk 16:15-18)

The mission is to bear witness to the Good News of Jesus to the ends of the earth, to go into all nations of the world and proclaim the Good News to all creation. The message of Jesus is meant to be Good News in the ears of all humankind irrespective of nationality or culture.

The spreading of the Good News to all nations is not a goal that can be attained by dint of human might and craft. That is why Jesus promises to empower His messengers from on high by His abiding presence and the Holy Spirit. The challenge of sharing the Good News with all humankind should, therefore, begin on our knees as we confess that we have fallen short of living the Gospel we preach and that we have not fully loved the way Christ did.

Prayer for Ascension Sunday

Risen Jesus,
help us to begin
living eternal life today.
Help us to know
your presence with us now, even as we anticipate
the joy of heaven.
Teach us to live this life
in a way that draws us
into eternal life with you.
Amen.
