From the desk of the pastor...

A priest who, in giving communion to the faithful, would sometimes encounter communicants who would approach him with open hands and also with open mouths. How did he deal with the confusion? After saying, “The Body of Christ,” he would tell them: “OK. Make up your mind. Dine-in or take-out?”

This weekend is the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. In today’s Gospel from Mark, we hear of Jesus giving His body and blood to His disciples at the Last Supper. He was one and united with them. The same privilege is given to us in the Eucharist. He is with us, always.

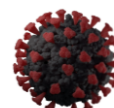

We did not mean to be irreverent to the Eucharist with our opening joke. In fact, the question “Dine-in or take-out?” underlines a very important point about our reception of the Eucharist, and that is, that the Eucharist should be both a dine-in and a take-out experience. We revere the Eucharist (devotional) and we also live the Eucharist in our daily lives (actual). All our actions should lead to the Eucharist and all our actions must proceed from our encounter and empowerment from the Lord in the Eucharist. In other words, the Eucharist is both a “sit-in” and a “to-go” experience.

By the way, there is a hidden camera on each one of us that sees all and records all. There is an eye that is all-seeing and a being that is all-knowing. This is a consolation for good people and a warning for bad people. Yes, there is divine justice. Sooner or later, it will catch up. Let us not lose heart nor should we envy those who prosper by evil ways.

This is a special “thank you” day to Jesus for the gift of Eucharist. May we learn to live the Eucharist by being the Living Bread of Love in our world.

Fr. Luis

Prayer

O God, we praise and thank You for the blessings of life in Canada, from your natural bounty and from the work of human hands.

We ask you to open our ears to the truths about our collective history shared with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission by survivors of residential schools.

We ask you to open our minds to the complex and subtle ways that past mistakes, arrogance, misuse of authority and sinfulness have damaged our social fabric in ways we have barely begun to address.

We ask you to open our hearts that we may continue to listen even when the truth challenges us; that we may understand that we are heirs to a system that has shown itself capable of domination and cruelty, whether or not we personally contributed; that we may commit ourselves in all humanity to do what we can and support the efforts of others to restore our ruptured social fabric.

Amen
