From the Desk of the Pastor...

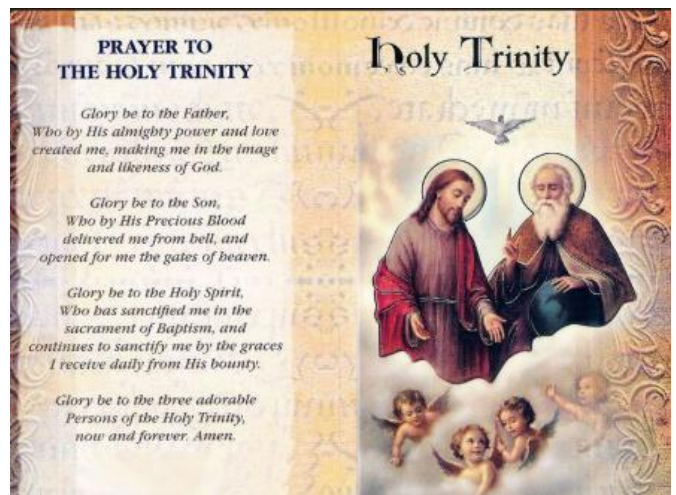

Today is Holy Trinity Sunday. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—is central to our faith. Hence every liturgical celebration begins, ends, and is saturated with invocations to the Trinity. We sign ourselves at the beginning of every celebration, like the Mass, even every prayer in the name of the Holy Trinity and then receive a Trinitarian blessing at the end.

Some people often would ask, “Why start our liturgy, like the Mass, with a ritual greeting of the Blessed Trinity and not just start with a warm and friendly greeting like ‘Good Morning?’” This would, indeed, be the right approach if the Mass were nothing more than a meal with family and friends, but, in reality, it is infinitely more than that. Our liturgy is not an informal gathering of a group of people. It is a sacred moment before God. This is why the Missal gives the formal, stylized greeting that the priest is expected to use during the Mass. If we believe the Mass is a representation of the Holy Sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross, we wouldn’t appreciate being greeted with a happy chippy greeting as you contemplate our Lord’s suffering and death. Since it is a sacred moment before God, then the formality and solemnity of the words should be befitting God.

In our second reading today, St. Paul used the greeting to the people of Corinth, “The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all”. This formula is one of the greetings during the Holy Mass. It expresses the Church’s belief in one God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It briefly sums up the very essence of Christian life. The Three divine persons of the Trinity take us up to their life as the one God and forming us here on earth as one body of Christ.

So, the next time we attend a liturgical celebration, especially the Holy Eucharist, remember this simple truth – the liturgy is not about us, it’s not even about the priest, it is first and foremost about God, the Most Holy Trinity, whom we worship, who reveals Himself to us and the very same Holy Trinity who now invites us, unworthy though we are, into the community of Persons, where each is distinct and yet perfectly united. “Unity in diversity” is not just a captivating slogan of the second Vatican council. It is already a reality in the three divine persons whom we call God. The deeper we grow in union with God, the deeper and more authentic our communion will be.

May the Almighty God bless you, in the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit!
