From the Desk of the Pastor...

The Church is a holy place because it is indwelt by the Holy Spirit. This calls us to recognize the sacredness of the community and to live in a way that respects this divine presence. Paul issues a severe warning: anyone who destroys this temple, which is the Church, will be destroyed by God. This destruction can be caused by false teachings, division, or immorality that damages the unity and holiness of the community.

Our celebration of the Feast Day of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is a constant reminder that the Church and each individual believer is called to be a living temple, free from the impurities of commercialism, greed and sin. Just as the physical temple needed cleansing, so too do our hearts and souls require constant spiritual work and renewal. The emphasis is on preparing our hearts to be receptive to God's Word and presence, rather than being focused on external things or material gain.

Our local Parish Church is the sacred place where we come together as a community to praise and worship God, to thank Him for His blessings, to ask pardon and forgiveness for our sins and to offer our lives and petitions on the altar. Let us make our Church an even more holy place by adding our prayers and songs to community worship and by offering our time and talents and treasure in the various ministries of our parish.

If our God is the God of the living, our worship of this living God also has to be alive. That means our participation in every Church activity should be active and our behaviour in Church reverent and humble, as we offer our lives and all our activities to our living God on the altar with repentant and grateful hearts.

Lastly, it is always my prayer and hope that our Church, the Parishes of our Lady Queen of Peace and St. Aloysius, may become a sacred abode where everyone of us can really feel welcomed with warmth, cared without prejudice and loved unconditionally. Let us do our part in making our Church a holy haven where everyone of us becomes God's loving arms humbly and peacefully reaching out to one and all.

A blessed Remembrance Day everyone!

- Fr. Erwin
