From the desk of the pastor...

ONE of the most important events in the history of the Redemption is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. It was on this day that the resurrected, ascended and glorified King poured out His Spirit upon the Church. This outpouring began the formation of the Christian Church with its spiritual gifts for teaching and power and the spread of the Gospel.

Originally an Old Testament festival, Pentecost is also known as Whitsunday and was originally an agricultural celebration giving thanks for the first fruits of the early spring festival. There is much debate about what happened on this day, whether it is an event only for the early church or whether it should or should not become a model for personal religious experience. In modern times, those who advocate it are termed Pentecostals although the term refers more to church traditions that promote speaking in tongues or a special Spirit-inspired prayer or praise language.

What is clear is that Pentecost represents God's gracious, enabling presence at work among His people, which enables them to lead their lives according to His teachings. It is also a day to celebrate hope, a hope that suggests that a knowledge of God through the Holy Spirit is at work among His people. The event also celebrates a newness, a renewal of purpose through the Holy Spirit, and a mission and calling as God's people.

Most of all, the day is a celebration of God's ongoing work that emphasizes the gifts of the Holy Spirit and provides a tremendous opportunity for churches to use this sacred time to call for a renewal through the work of the Holy Spirit in their lives.

Did you know?

"Formal cooperation in an abortion constitutes a grave offense. The Church attaches the canonical penalty of excommunication to this crime against human life. 'A person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication latae sententiae,' 'by the very commission of the offense,' and subject to the conditions provided by Canon Law. The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society."
