From the desk of the pastor...

The Apostles gathered in the same Upper Room where they had their Last Supper with Jesus. Jesus had ascended to heaven, and so the apostles huddled around His mother in this place for nine days to learn from her about Jesus. On the feast of Pentecost, they left the Upper Room and began to preach the Gospel fearlessly in all of Jerusalem.

The disciples who had been too ashamed to appear at the foot of the Cross now boldly and proudly proclaimed God's love as seen by Christ's death on that Cross. What could have made these people turn from cowards to willing martyrs? The answer is What and Whom we celebrate today: The Holy Spirit.

On Pentecost Sunday, the Holy Spirit worked a miracle in each of the apostles and through them in the whole Church. The Holy Spirit came down upon them as tongues of fire – tongues because they were to speak, fire because they were to speak with the passion of burning love. Then, helped in this way by the Holy Spirit, they began to fulfill this mission. The Acts of the Apostles had begun. The Church was born.

The Spirit prepares men and goes out to them with his grace, in order to draw them to Christ. The Spirit manifests the risen Lord to them, recalls his word to them and opens their minds to the understanding of his Death and Resurrection. He makes present the mystery of Christ, supremely in the Eucharist, in order to reconcile them, to bring them into communion with God, that they may "bear much fruit."

"The Spirit helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we ought to, but the Spirit himself intercedes with sighs too deep for words." The Holy Spirit, the artisan of God's works, is the master of prayer.

- Fr. Luis

Lord Jesus, as God's Spirit came down and rested upon you, may the same Spirit rest on us, bestowing his sevenfold gifts:
 First, grant us the gift of understanding, by which your precepts may enlighten our minds.
 Second, grant us counsel, by which we may follow in your footsteps on the path of righteousness.
 Third, grant us courage, by which we may ward off the enemy's attacks.
 Fourth, grant us knowledge, by which we can distinguish good from evil.
 Fifth, grant us piety, by which we may acquire compassionate hearts.
 Sixth, grant us fear, by which we may draw back from evil.
 Seventh, grant us wisdom, that we may taste fully the life-giving sweetness of your love.

Food Bank: Once again the Food Bank wishes to thank the Parish family for its generous support of those in real need in the community. Unfortunately, with the passing of Easter and it’s celebrations, the need within the community is not lessening and the Food Bank again relies on the understanding and generosity of our parishioners in helping to provide the help so wanted. Please deposit what you can in our Food Store Collection boxes. Pantry and personal items in particular are thankfully received.

Organo Coffee Program

OLQP of Peace is launching a parish permanent fundraising program with Organo Coffees and Teas. Attached is a flyer on the products and an Order Form to Print for purchases. Order forms and the order box is available at all weekend Masses at OLQP church in Bobcaygeon. Orders are due the 3rd Sunday of each month. Healthy Gourmet Coffee and Church support in one delicious cup! On Sunday June 18th join in a parish ‘Coffee Sunday’ and get a taste of the coffee and tea from Organo as we enjoy fellowship in our parish hall. You will learn more about the product, program, and ordering. An easy coffee for travelling and gifts.

Bikefest Biker Blessing

OLQP Bike Blessing on June 3rd starting at 12:00 p.m. Mass for the intentions of all bikers is at 5:00 p.m. Prepaid meal of smoked pulled pork, slaw and Organo Coffee or water is available for $10 per meal. Parishioners are asked to pre-purchase meal tickets sold after all weekend masses in May. We need volunteers! Please speak with Bryan or Fernando about what volunteer positions are needed or to make a cash donation to offset costs.

St. Aloysius

Food Bank: The Salvation Army is placing a request for the following items for the month of May. Please donate what you can by leaving it at the church or dropping donations off to The Salvation Army at 42 Bond Street in Fenelon Falls. Non-food items in need include can openers, Tupperware containers, garbage bags and food storage bags. As well, there is a shortage of instant potatoes, canned potatoes, stuffing mix, instant coffee, sugar, vegetable oil, laundry soap, dish soap, canned ham/chicken and canned vegetables.
