From the desk of the pastor...

St. Faustina Kowalska was a Polish nun who died on October 5, 1938 at only 33 years of age. She had lived a very simple life proclaiming an extremely simple message: The Heart of Jesus is overflowing with divine mercy toward sinners and wants all to come to him with trust-filled love.

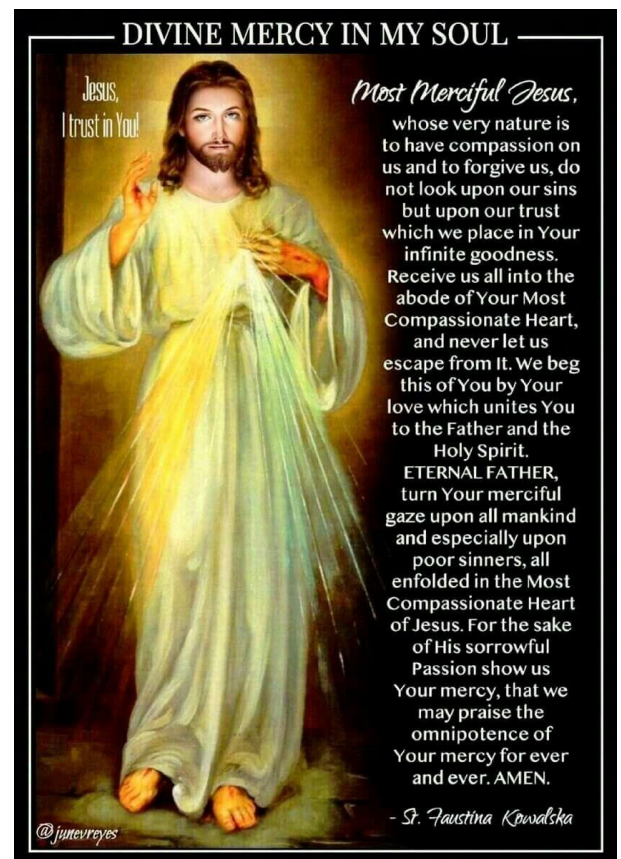

“JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU”. This sentence expresses the response of humble faith on the part of the sinner to the endless mercy with which God brings about the salvation of the world.

This is the mercy that brought God’s Son to become a human being and to give his life on the cross for all sinners. This is also the same mercy that led the Risen Christ to go in search of his disciples the very day he rose from death, to reassure them of his forgiving love. No revenge for having been deserted by them right when he needed their allegiance most, but only the gifts of his peace and comforting presence. No bitterness against the doubting Thomas, but only patient understanding for his weakness and a tender desire to arouse in him faith in the Resurrection.

“Jesus, remember me when you enter into your reign!” had been the earnest plea of the man being executed with him on Calvary as he viewed his life as a total failure and Jesus’ mercy as his only hope. And he was not disappointed.

“Jesus, have mercy on me. I trust in you!” is the expression of complete self-surrender which all of us should address to our Saviour as we realize our unworthiness and our need to be forgiven.

This is what we implore, in all humility and confidence, throughout our lives, until our last moments. Like the repentant thief dying on a cross, side by side with the Innocent Victim, we place all our trust in Jesus, the King of Divine Mercy.

Food Bank: Sincere thanks from the Food Bank for the support and concern showed during Lent and our Easter collection. It has made a difference and helps to prepare for what seems likely to be a challenging summer. Whatever is done by our Parish family means so much in helping neighbours, within the community, who need support, especially putting food on the table. Thank you so much for the generosity of your Lenten alms.

Divine Mercy Sunday April 16th, 2023, at Our Lady Queen of Peace in Bobcaygeon

The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in her Diary entry 699:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.

Confessions, in preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday, will be heard at Our Lady Queen of Peace in Bobcaygeon from 11:30am till 1pm on Friday April 14th. For another time, please speak to Fr. Luis.

Divine Mercy Sunday (please arrive by 1:50pm)

2pm – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

2:50pm – Benediction and Praying of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy Mass

LIVE-STREAMING OF THE MASS FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY)

The Mass for the Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday) will be live-streamed from the Cathedral of St. Peter-in-Chains starting at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 15, 2023.

The Mass will be available thereafter on the YouTube channel for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Peterborough.
