From the desk of the pastor...

Profession of our faith and our love for Christ in words is good and needed. But along with the words – and even more important than them – is our profession of faith and love for him through our lives.

Actions speak louder than words. An authentic Christian life is the only profession of love for Christ we can offer, and the only one which most people are inclined to accept. The testing ground of our love for Christ is not the microphone of a Radio or TV station. It is our life – the way we relate to God and respond to the needs of those around us or far away.

To respond to Christ's love for us throughout our life, in constant faithfulness (and not just occasionally!), is a daunting task. And we are weak. Jesus knew it, and that is why he promised his disciples (and us) that he would not leave them/us orphaned. He promised to stay with us to the very end to guide and support us.

Jesus' presence is made operative in our existence through the action of the Spirit, the supreme Gift of the Risen Lord. Life may get hard for us. We may be misunderstood or even persecuted because of our faithfulness to God. This already happened to Jesus. It will surely happen to us if we remain faithful to him. In the midst of all difficulties we should keep in mind Jesus' wonderful promise: "Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him . . . and we will come to him and make our dwelling place with him" (Jn 14:21.23).

These are words worth remembering and believing. Their fulfillment will make our life a lasting success.

- Fr. Luis

A Prayer in Gratitude for Our Mothers

Good and Gentle God,
we pray in gratitude for our mothers and for all the women of theory who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings. Give them the strength to live and to be loved in return, not perfectly, but humanly. Give them the faithful support of husband, family and friends as they care for the physical and spiritual growth of their children. Give them joy and delight in their children to sustain them through the trials of motherhood. Most of all, give them the wisdom to turn to you for help when they need it most.
