From the desk of the pastor...

It's a tough job to be a prophet. It was never easy. Those who are chosen for this mission often realize it only later in their life. Sometimes God seems to leave the prophet on his own, right when the danger is greater. That's the moment when the faithfulness of the prophet is tested.

Moses experienced those difficult moments. So did Jeremiah and the author of Psalm 22 – the psalm Jesus chose to recite during his agony on the cross. This shows that Jesus also experienced the “absence” of God during the most critical moments of his earthly life.

But every real prophet, deep in his heart, knows that God is not absent. He does not abandon those He has chosen and sent, provided they put all their trust in Him. God does reveal His reassuring, consoling, strengthening and saving presence. And through His unfailing grace He brings victory both over the external enemies and the internal weakness of the persecuted prophet.

All Christians are called to share in the prophetic role of Christ. This may occasionally entail sharing in Jesus' suffering and persecution for the sake of the Kingdom, for no disciple is greater than the Master, as he himself said: “Be not afraid!” Jesus said to his disciples in today's passage and on several other occasions. (See Lk 5:10 and Mk 4:40.)

“Be not afraid!” says the refrain of the popular song with the same title. “Be not afraid!” is also the message Saint John Paul II kept repeating to all men of goodwill. Indeed, we should not be afraid, but instead, take courage and be full of confidence, for “God is watching” over us. We are under His powerful and loving protection.

No one should be frightened by sad prospects and threats, as if we were led to ourselves. God our Father will never abandon His chosen ones in the power of their enemies. And even when He allows their bodies to be destroyed, He still has the whole eternity to reward His prophets for their faithfulness unto death.

- Fr. Luis

PRAYER FOR THE THIRD WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY 2025

Virgin Mary,
Mother of faith and hope,
an example for this humanity bent by indifference,
make me as willing as You
to accept the will of God,
to magnify and praise His Mercy.

Mary, Mother of fortitude,
you who knows my heart,
do not allow me to become discouraged.
I confidently surrender my life into your hands.
Heal my wounds.
May your tenderness accompany me on the way.

Your presence, Mother of love,
brings us to experience the joy
of seeing our families united.
Help me to transmit the tenderness and Love of God
to the grandchildren and youth
so that, in addition to praying for them,
we can pray with them.

Mary, may the gift of the Holy Spirit intercede for me:
sustain my weakness;
breathe into my heart the consolation
that I may leave traces of faith among the young,
bearing witness to the beauty of life,
knowing that life has a limit
and that beyond it lies before us our Father's embrace.

Amen.
