From the desk of the pastor...

There's an old saying which goes, "If at first you don't succeed, try and try again." (This doesn't apply to committing suicide, of course!)

That was just what the Canaanite woman did in the gospel. She kept on pestering the Lord, to the point of vexation, to cure her possessed daughter.

Jesus tried to ignore her, then rebuffed her, finally insulted her by insinuating she was a house-dog. "It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the house-dogs" (Mt 15:16).

She was undaunted. Instead, she turned the table around by making a smart repartee, which surprised Jesus, "Ah yes, sir, but even house-dogs can eat the scraps that fall from their master's table."

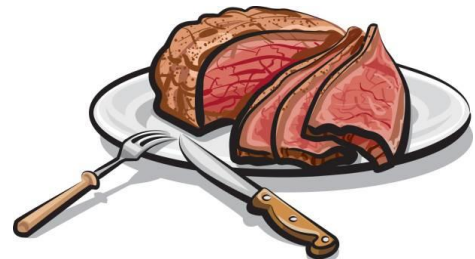

Jesus was so impressed by the woman's brash reply that he exclaimed, "Woman, great is your faith. Let your wish be granted." The lesson is we shouldn't get discouraged in our prayers with God. We should be "cheeky"; and, like that Canaanite woman, our perseverance will be rewarded.

Some say, however, that their prayers fall on deaf ears. We should remember that prayer begins with the risk of asking or entrusting ourselves to silence, uncertainty and even rebuff. Hence, the saying, "Man proposes, God disposes."

All of us over the years have lost people that we love, and it is our hope that some day we will be reunited with our loved ones. This hope isn't in vain, because it is rooted in the resurrection of Jesus, Our Lord, and thus we have a relationship with all those who have gone before us. The Catechism of the Catholic Church in par. 958, reminds us of our obligation to have "great respect for the dead" and our duty to "pray for the dead so that they may be loosed from their sins" and thus our prayers aid those in purgatory (1032). It reminds us that "our prayer for the dead is capable of not only helping them but also of making their intercessions for us effective."

To aid all of us in praying for the souls of our dearly departed we are having a cemetery Mass in our parish cemetery at 13 Bulmer's Road, Fenelon Falls, on Sunday, September 17th at 10:00 am.

This mass will replace the 9:00 a.m. mass in Bobcaygeon and 11:00 a.m. Mass in Fenelon Falls. That Sunday there will be a special envelope provided for a collection to help provide for the maintenance of our cemetery so as to care for the resting place of our parishioners. Our prayers that day are a sign of our love and our commitment to our faith and the virtue of hope.

We hope to see you all there...WEATHER PERMITTING.

Please bring your lawn chairs with you.
