From the desk of the pastor...

In Jesus' parable, the king (God) had made elaborate preparations for a wedding banquet and then invited guests, but they all begged off for more "important" matters: One went to his estate, another to his business. Jesus refers to the wedding banquet as God's kingdom (heaven).

Christ's parable is a thinly veiled accusation against the Jewish people of the day who had been invited by God to be his Chosen People, but they contemptuously refused. Today the parable serves as a WARNING for us Christians as the new Chosen People who are invited.

To be fair, we have not ignored God's invitation, otherwise we would not be baptized Christians and would not be fulfilling our Sunday obligations. But we're still on our way to the great banquet. And the danger for us is that we may allow the affairs of this world, our business, our pleasures to blur or blot out our vision of the real goal in life.

Our Lord invites us to live a balanced life which takes into consideration our spiritual well-being. God invites us to His Eucharistic banquet for spiritual nourishment and to have time for prayer.

God is not taking away our time for work, recreation and worldly pursuits. What He is asking is that we should not forget or neglect our spiritual needs.

All the best. Fr. Luis

PRAYER OF SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace; Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; And where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek, To be consoled as to console; To be understood, as to understand; To be loved, as to love; For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen!

Saint Francis of Assisi, pray for us and the whole world. Amen!
