From the desk of the pastor...

This WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. The truth of the matter is: Every Christian, by virtue of baptism, IS a missionary. Obviously, not all can do what the couple missionary did. What counts is not geography, but the attitude.

Remember St. Therese of the Child Jesus? She never stepped out of the four walls of her Carmelite cloister but was chosen as the universal patroness of Catholic missions. She merited the title because of her burning obsession to save souls by offering every little act, every bodily pain for the conversion of immortal souls.

How can we be missionaries at home? Like St. Therese, we can offer prayers and sacrifices for the missions.

Then we can give a part of ourselves by means of financial contribution. Ordinarily money is what we receive when we are employed; it thus represents a part of ourselves.

Let's face it: One of the most difficult things to do is to part off with one's money. This reminds me about a parish priest who was making an impassioned appeal to the parish council for the annual mission collection.

Great was everybody's surprise when the wealthiest, but miserly member of the council rose and offered to start the collection rolling with a contribution of $500.

As he stood up to hand in the amount, a mild earthquake took place and some plaster from the ceiling fell and hit him on the head. A bit shaken, he withdrew the amount and said, "I guess I'd better make that $5, 000." A small voice from the back of the hall was heard, "Hit him again, Lord."

Don't wait for the Lord to hit you. You may not recover from it! LOL

God bless,
- Fr. Luis

ALL SAINTS & ALL SOULS DAY

Fr. John will be celebrating one mass each day on November 1st & November 2nd. Please plan to attend either church to observe All Saints & All Souls Day celebrations.

All Saints Day – Wednesday November 1st at 9:00 a.m. at St. Aloysius
All Souls Day – Thursday November 2nd at 1:00 p.m. at Our Lady Queen of Peace

All Hallows’ Day, the Solemnity of All Saints, or All Saints’ Day is a celebration of all Catholic saints held on November 1 each year. “On this solemnity, we recall the holy men and women who, having completed their earthly journeys, now live forever with God. These saints, though not canonized, offer us models of abiding faith and love of God and neighbour” (Essential Guide to Seasons and Saints, 109).

The Church teaches that by imitating the virtues lived by the saints, the saints bring us closer to Christ. When we ask the saints to pray for us, we ask them to join their wills with the will of God and intercede for us here on earth. This is the Communion of Saints which we profess every Sunday in the Creed. (Source: USCCB)

All Souls’ Day, also known as “The Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed” is observed on Nov. 2. The faithful on earth can assist these purgatorial souls in attaining heaven through prayer, good work and the offering of Mass. At Mass on All Souls’ Day, we pray that through Christ’s loving mercy, God’s “departed servants...may be granted pardon and peace and be brought to the joy of God’s eternal home. All Souls Day is an especially rich cultural experience for Hispanic/Latino Catholics, who call it “Día de los Muertos” or “The Day of the Dead.”
