From the Desk of the Pastor...

In the Gospel story of Mark, Jesus goes a long way to help the poor and needy. The Decapolis (or “ten cities”) was far from Jerusalem in what is now the northern part of Syria. It was an impoverished area, mostly forgotten by the wealthy and people of importance, but Jesus was on a mission and it included preaching to all of the children of Israel. This little bit of attention to these people made them remark, “He has done all this well.”

In the Old Testament, God leads His people through the efforts of the patriarchs and the prophets. In the New Testament, He works directly through His Son, Jesus Christ, but the intent is the same – to make His people happy by taking care of their needs, both physical and spiritual. For example, when Jesus commands the deaf man’s ears “be open” He is commanding not only the physical ears, but the whole being of the man, most importantly his spiritual ears.

This weeks readings challenge us to reflect on our own conduct when we are at Mass or reading scripture for devotions or study. Do we really open our mind and heart and let the scriptures speak to us? Or do we let the words go in one ear and out the other? Something to think about during your prayer time this week!

God bless you.

Fr. Luis

September 2024 Prayer Intentions:
FOR THE CRY OF THE EARTH

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network has released the list of prayer intentions set by Pope Francis for the year 2024. Each month, Pope Francis asks Catholics around the world to pray for a specific intention.

We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

Reflecting on the Cry of the Earth

It's time to listen to the cry of the Earth. Today, we reflect on the ways we can change our lifestyles, consumption, and production patterns.
