From the desk of the pastor...

Many of us have the notion that loving someone means always agreeing or not hurting his or her feelings. But true love and friendship also means criticizing or disagreeing when a loved one goes astray. And sometimes the best service you can do to a person you love is to disagree with him when he is not doing right.

The gospel of the 23rd Sunday says, “If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault”. In teaching us about responsibility for others, Christ says that part of love is to correct the faults of others.

The gospel message also teaches us that when we have to correct people, like a spouse, a child, a friend, a co-worker, it should not be too harsh, but done gently and in the spirit of charity and concern. Put differently, you should disagree without being disagreeable.

The writer Frank Clark puts it thus, “Criticism, like rain, should be gentle enough to nourish a man’s growth without destroying his roots.” Just as too much water destroys a plant so does too much negative criticism destroys a person’s growth.

In trying to correct other’s faults, the following Aesop’s fable is worth pondering: Once the sun and wind made a bet as to who was mightier as to compel a guy wearing a jacket to remove it.

“That’s easy,” the wind bragged as it blew hard and violent. But the more he did, the more the man wrapped his arms around his jacket. After several more attempts, the wind gave up.

It was the turn of the sun. Using no force, he simply kept raising the temperature. In no time, the man started to perspire. Unable to bear the heat, he quickly removed his jacket! The moral? A persevering, gentle approach is more effective than a harsh and violent one.

Cemetery Mass

All of us over the years have lost people that we love, and it is our hope that some day we will be reunited with our loved ones. This hope isn't in vain, because it is rooted in the resurrection of Jesus, Our Lord, and thus we have a relationship with all those who have gone before us. The Catechism of the Catholic Church in par. 958, reminds us of our obligation to have "great respect for the dead" and our duty to "pray for the dead so that they may be relieved of their sins" and thus our prayers aid those in purgatory (1032). It reminds us that "our prayer for the dead is capable of not only helping them but also of making their intercessions for us effective."

To aid all of us in praying for the souls of our dearly departed we are having a Cemetery Mass in our parish cemetery at 13 Bulmer's Road, Fenelon Falls, on Sunday, September 17th at 10:00 am.

This Mass will replace the 9:00 a.m. Mass in Bobcaygeon and 11:00 a.m. Mass in Fenelon Falls. That Sunday there will be a special envelope provided for a collection to help provide for the maintenance of our cemetery so as to care for the resting place of our parishioners. Our prayers that day are a sign of our love and our commitment to our faith and the virtue of hope.

We hope to see you all there...WEATHER PERMITTING.

Please bring your lawn chairs with you.
